KAYLI: "That word "collaborate" that Gregg and Staci use in reference to senior pictures is the best representation of what you get from working with them. When I first started to look for photographers for my senior pictures, I was immediately drawn to Gregg. I knew exactly what I wanted, and that was original, unique, striking photos with sophistication and flair. I am quite into photography myself and I know what kind of photos grab my attention intensely. THAT is what I wanted for my senior pictures. Plus I wanted something that was 100% me. That is the comment I got on my senior pictures the most. "Kayli, that is so YOU!" Besides the actual photos, Gregg is an amazing guy who makes a seemingly stressful situation a lot less stressful. He actually makes it really fun. He's not an uptight, everything has to be the way it has to be, kind of person. He encourages you to be you and to have a fun time; a really, really fun time! My parents and I found ourselves laughing about stuff that happened at the shoot all the way back home. It was a blast and the memories made while taking the photos are as awesome as the photos themselves. So, if you're looking something unique to you, make an appointment with Gregg. You'll absolutely be glad you did. I know I sure am."

NATHAN: Gregg is probably one of the most down to earth photographers money can buy. It was a quick, easy, and fun process and the results were sweet. All of my family and friends liked my pictures and so did I. He will let you be your own person while giving you tips for making the perfect picture. On some of the pictures I was like hmmm? this is going to look weird, but if he gives you an idea it always works out. Thanks again

STEVEN: Gregg Riess did extremely well with my senior pictures and all of my friends and family loved how they came out. SAMANTHA: Gregg Riess Photography did a wonderful job on my pictures! He was so nice and friendly and made the experience a great memory. When it came time to decide where I wanted to get my pictures taken, I knew I didn't want pictures like everyone else. I found the perfect place with Gregg Riess. My friends and family were so impressed by the pictures! Even juniors from my school asked how to get ahold of Gregg because they loved the different scenes and shots he had to choose from. He does a fantastic job! Thanks a bunch!

GARRET: Gregg is talented, personable, easy to work with, and has a knack for finding locales to match your personality. It was important to me to find a photographer who's pictures captured a realistic but artistic look, and Gregg did a great job.

MARRISA: Gregg was so fun to work with because he was so professional and he knew exactly how to make my sessions unique and fun. My favorite thing about our two sessions was learning the "seven." If you don't know what it means you need to go and see him because it helped me take a ton of amazing pictures! All of my senior photos turned out absolutely amazing and I have Gregg to thank for that! He truly makes your experience special because he makes you feel comfortable and beautiful!

Thank you so much Gregg! It has been a pleasure working with you!

AMBER: I had anticipated my senior pictures for a long time and didn't know what exactly to expect. Of course I was anxious and nervous for these pictures and the turn out. My worst fear was I would look terrible and they wouldn't portray me at all, which unfortunately happens. Gregg has an extreme amount of talent with the camera and people and found a way to bring out my best qualities. Having Gregg as my photographer was great. He made me feel comfortable, showed me a lot of tricks and made sessions enjoyable and memorable. I was beyond satisfied with my senior pictures and would most definitely recommend Gregg to anyone

I had such a fun time with the shoot that I had no doubt that they were going to come out great, and they did. He really cares about the person and the pictures not just with getting it done quickly. My pictures were unique and unlike anyone else's I've ever seen and that's what was so great about it, his creativity collaborated with my own. ALYCIA: From the get-go Gregg was energetic and eager to work. He explained everything from what clothes I should bring and how to style my hair. I knew exactly what was going to happen each day prior to my arrival, and that took a lot of nerves and stress off me. The sessions were a blast and my pictures turned out great! I am really impressed with the professional outcome from each shot, and I also liked how I had an original set up (not like my other friends whose pictures all look identical). I would highly recommend Gregg, he is fun to work with and does a fantastic job!!
